

Whether it's due to global travel restrictions or personal circumstances, the unexpected need to take your meeting digital in a matter of hours has become a reality. Having a specialized team that enables you to keep meeting objectives on track is critical to the success of your event.

The virtual events team at PSAV can help the show go on even if a key presenter or some of the attendees are unable to attend in person. Our solutions help you stay connected today without losing audience engagement and interaction. In fact, virtual events offer many benefits including sponsorship opportunities and the increased ability for live chat, polling, and Q&A.

Solutions include:

- Video Conferencing: two-way real time communication
- Webcasting: broadcast to a large, dispersed audience
- Simultaneous Interpretation: interpretive services so presenters and attendees understand each other in real-time
- And more

Need some guidance?

We have a range of solutions that can meet your needs – and your budget. Our team can help you select the right platforms for your technology from a speaker phone all the way to a live webcast for 100k virtual attendees, while creating a seamless experience in line with your branding.

Uniquely positioned around the world, PSAV team members are available 24/7 to assist. Reach out to our Virtual Events team at <https://www.psav.com/virtual-event>.

Are virtual events right for me?

There are many reasons why you might be looking to meet virtually:

- Space limitations
- Travel restrictions
- Remote office locations
- Distributed workforce
- Sponsorship opportunities
- Increased ability for live chat, polling and Q&A

Whatever the reason, our team is here to help.